

Key results in Portugal

Strengthening social entrepreneurship through support to civil society

27

Projects on youth employment, expected to help over 5000 young people improve their skills and support more than 2000 budding entrepreneurs

Exchanging knowledge on geothermal energy exploitation

12

Students and professionals from the Azores participated in courses on geothermal energy given by Iceland's United Nations University

Increasing cultural cooperation

300

Schoolchildren attended art events

Find out more at www.eeagrants.org/portugal