

Key results in Romania

Increasing the efficiency of the justice system

Legal professionals and court staff trained in the new criminal codes, human rights and court management

Supporting research cooperation

Researchers involved in joint research projects involving donor countries

Improving public health services and reducing health inequalities

People benefiting from improved health information and health services

Strengthening civil society

NGOs participating in partnerships including with local government