EEA and Norway Grants 2014-2021

The culture programmes support safeguarding cultural heritage, cultural cooperation and intercultural dialogue. The programmes make culture more accessible, and contribute to local jobs, skills development and resilience in local communities.

The programme will be implemented through:

Beneficiary States

EEA Grants<sup>1</sup>

Open calls for proposals

Pre-defined projects

Why support culture in Europe?

Support for the culture sector is important in and of itself. Cooperation across borders, cultural exchange and conservation of cultural heritage contribute to diversity, increased tolerance, job creations and growth. This again brings long-term social and economic benefits, especially to local communities. The EEA and Norway Grants create capacity for inter-cultural dialogue and encourage reflection on and learning from Europe's common past.

What is supported?

The EEA and Norway Grants' cultural programmes contribute to social and economic development. Supported initiatives include:

- Cultural heritage management, preservation and conservation
- Cultural entrepreneurship
- Cultural, creative and artistic activities
- Reaching out to people through targeted and educational activities
